Local Ingredients

*The ingredients in our 200 Mile menu are predominantly sourced within 200 miles of Canberra.
Read about their provenance below.*

Snowy Mountain Trout

Family owned and run farm, nestled beneath the Blowering Dam wall in the foothills of the pristine Snowy Mountains catchment at Tumut. We think it is the best trout in the country.

Sonoma Bakery

Local artisan bakery, baking fresh everyday on Lonsdale Street, Braddon.

Riverina Lamb

We believe the best eating lamb in the country comes from the Riverina region near the Murrumbidgee River. We source the best free range lamb from our trusted butcher.

Murrumbateman Mushroom

Our local Canberra region has the right climate to produce some of the best mushrooms in the country.

Pialligo Estate Smokehouse

One of the best artisan smokehouses in the country, and our local supplier for all our bacon and pancetta.

Lonsdale Street Roasters

One of Canberra's favourite roasters, they provide us with our custom Stellar blend.

Batlow Apples

One of the original apple growing areas situated right in our backyard, providing us with apples famous for their sweet taste and crispness.

Lake George Winery

Canberra's oldest winery on the north west shore of Lake George, they use only estate grown grapes.

Long Rail Gully Winery

To the north of Murrumbateman village on ancient decomposed granite soil, they produce the classic Canberra Riesling, which compliments our Snowy Rainbow Trout Cakes perfectly.

Mount Majura Winery

Almost in the city, sitting on top of limestone and volcanic soil, they produce some wonderful wines. Their Dinny's Block Cabernet Franc Merlot goes beautifully with our Coq au Vin.

Bentspoke Brewery

This multi award winning Canberra born and bred brewery produces popular and unique ales and ciders.
